

MEETING THE CHALLENGE AND MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Pittsburgh

You are invited to the ASHHRA 54th Annual Conference & Exposition

The American Society for Healthcare Human Resources Administration (ASHHRA) of the American Hospital Association (AHA), would like to invite 30 to 50 human resources students to attend one day of conference programming for health care human resources professionals. This one day conference experience will involve students from any facet of human resources. ASHHRA would like to engage undergraduate and graduate students who are 21 years and older to learn more about the field of health care HR.

Students will have a session tailored specifically towards their questions about what makes health care HR different from other fields. Additionally, participating students will have an opportunity to attend sessions that will give them a deeper understanding of workplace complexities as well as to network and build professional relationships that can guide them through their early career journey.
